Overview

Chakrata is a serene hill town near Dehradun, perched above 7,000 ft in the Yamuna Valley. Surrounded by dense forests, ancient temples, and mysterious caves, it was once a small settlement of the Jaunsari tribe (Jaunsar Bawar) and later developed by the British East India Company. The area also houses a military cantonment. Adventure seekers can trek to Kharamba Peak (10,000 ft), enjoy skiing, bird-watching, or simply explore the untamed wilderness. With its peaceful charm and scenic beauty, Chakrata is an ideal retreat for nature lovers and explorers alike.
